Subject: Re: Donlin EIS: DVDs of the EED and Endnotes data set

Hi Stephen

I am having problems accessing the secure folders. The information below is what I was provided by Taylor.

Can you provide me with a set of DVDs of the EED and I will ensure the EPA technical experts have access to the EED. Thanks.

You have been granted access to a Secure Folder hosted by URS Corporation. You can upload and download files to and from this folder.

Your user name is: (b) (6)

Your temporary password is: (b) (6)

You will be required to change your password the first time you log into the system.

The Secure Folder is available at the following web address:

(b) (6)

Folder Information

Folder name: Donlin Gold EIS - External

Folder path: Distribution/URS Main/Donlin Gold EIS - External

Folder managers: Bill Craig, David Lawrence, Kimberly Wetzel, Rachel Wagner, Stephen Trimble, Tara Bellion, Taylor Brelsford

You may be asked to install an active x control when you access this system. Administration rights are needed to do this. If you cannot install this control the system will function without it being installed.
